Note from our Pastor

"My Father is always at His work to this very day, and I too am working"

(John 5:17)

God is at work all around us each and every day. It's up to us as His servants and followers of Jesus to join Him at work. How do you know where He is at work? When you see things happening that only He can do. When someone out of the blue asks you a question in which the answer can lead you to a conversation about church, God, or spirituality. When you see children and youth hungry for devotion and wanting to learn more about Jesus. God is at work in our children and youth in our church. It's up to us to join Him so that He may be glorified. Wednesday August 20, we start back our regular Wednesday night services. There could easily be 30+ children attending. Upward Soccer is cranking up with around 50 children signed up. We have an opportunity as a church to share the love of Jesus with each and every one, as well as their parents. It is an exciting opportunity! Please be plugged in as leaders, kitchen support, bus/van drivers/riders, Upward volunteers, and prayer warriors. God is wanting to do something great this fall through our church. My prayer is that we will be obedient and willing servants so that He will be glorified through us.

See you Sunday!

Bro. Joey

Lord, in my work — whether at a job, at home or in a service—
help me to do it with purpose and peace.
Keep me from being overwhelmed, and remind me that my worth is not in what I produce, but in who I am in You.

Fixer-uppers

Summer is peak time for home renovations and remodeling projects. Those can be super stressful, starting with the selection of a contractor.

In a blog about her own family's construction plans, Laura Elliott explains the challenge: "It's not just any builder I want. I want one who has impeccable workmanship, is completely trustworthy and delivers our long-awaited [projects] early and under-budget." After sifting through bids and reviews, she discovered that most builders "look like they do pretty similar work for a pretty similar price."

For spiritual renovations, however, the choice is clear. "God is the builder of everything," says Hebrews 3:4 (NIV). Elliott writes, "Jesus is not only the builder of His Father's house, but He is the buyer, and the heir as well." And what he's building, she adds, is "a better Bride," his church.

Faith upgrades are an ongoing, lifelong process. "The renewal of our natures is a work of great importance," said 18th-century minister George Whitefield. "It is not to be done in a day. We have not only a new house to build up, but an old one to pull down." It's a good thing God oversees this project!

A Walking Contradiction

A real Christian is an odd number. He feels supreme love for One whom he has never seen; talks familiarly every day to Someone he cannot see; expects to go to heaven on the virtue of Another; empties himself in order to be full; admits he is wrong so he can be declared right; goes down in order to get up; is strongest when he is weakest, richest when he is poorest and happiest when he feels the worst. He dies so he can live; forsakes in order to have; gives away so he can keep; sees the invisible, hears the inaudible, and knows that which passes knowledge.

The [person] who has met God is not looking for anything; he has found it. He is not searching for light, for upon him the light has already shined. ... He is not a copy, not a facsimile. He is an original from the hand of the Holy Spirit.

—A.W. Tozer
