Note from our Pastor

As we come to the close of the Upward season next weekend, we have been blessed by several volunteers who have truly stepped up and committed a lot of time to make this season a tremendous success. Spearheaded by April Martin, but with the help of numerous others, we have had a wonderful opportunity to share the good news of Jesus with 46 children and their families. Many seeds have been planted. Many have heard about Jesus, perhaps for the first time. We have been blessed with many high schoolers who have volunteered their time as coaches, referees, and helpers. They also have heard the devotions and perhaps have had seeds planted within as well. Pray that all seeds planted will be watered and will grow into fruition. I am thankful for a church who sees the need to be a Great Commission church and continues to reach out in many ways to our community.

On another note, we welcome our new Youth Director, Joseph Dickinson and his family to our church. We will have an upcoming bio on him, but we are excited about what he brings to our youth leadership. He has met with the youth once so far, and the room was packed. Pray for Joseph, our youth as well as our children and children's leaders. What a great responsibility we have as a church to reach the children and youth of our community.

Blessings,
Bro. Joey
